Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure

On February 29, 2024, Verizon Communications Inc. (“Verizon”) entered into two separate commitment agreements, one by and between Verizon, State Street Global Advisors Trust Company (“State Street”), as independent fiduciary of the Verizon Management Pension Plan and Verizon Pension Plan for Associates (the “Pension Plans”), and The Prudential Insurance Company of America (“Prudential”), and one by and between Verizon, State Street and RGA Reinsurance Company (“RGA”), under which the Pension Plans purchased a nonparticipating single premium group annuity contract from Prudential and a nonparticipating single premium group annuity contract from RGA to settle approximately $5.9 billion of benefit liabilities of the Pension Plans.

The purchase of the group annuity contracts closed on March 6, 2024. The group annuity contracts primarily cover a population that includes 56,000 retirees who commenced benefit payments from the Pension Plans prior to January 1, 2023 (“Transferred Participants”). Prudential and RGA each irrevocably guarantee and assume the sole obligation to make future payments to the Transferred Participants as provided under their respective group annuity contracts, with direct payments beginning July 1, 2024. Prudential and RGA will each assume 50% of the benefit obligation related to Transferred Participants, except in certain jurisdictions where Prudential will assume 100% of the benefit obligation related to Transferred Participants residing in such jurisdictions. The aggregate amount of each Transferred Participant’s payment under the group annuity contracts will be equal to the amount of each individual’s payment under the Pension Plans.

Participants in the Pension Plans who are not covered by the group annuity contracts, including management and associate retirees who commenced benefit payments on or after January 1, 2023 and active and term vested managers and associates, will not be affected by this transaction.

Transferred Participants will continue to receive their benefits from the Pension Plans until July 1, 2024, at which time Prudential will assume responsibility for administrative services, including distribution of payments to the Transferred Participants, on behalf of itself and, where applicable, RGA.

The purchase of the group annuity contracts was funded directly by assets of the Pension Plans. Verizon made additional contributions to the Pension Plans prior to the closing date of the transaction in the aggregate amount of approximately $365 million. With these contributions, the funded ratio of each of the Pension Plans does not change as a result of this transaction.

As a result of the transaction, Verizon expects to recognize a one-time non-cash pension settlement credit in the first quarter of 2024. The actual amount of the credit will depend on finalization of the actuarial and other assumptions.

The information provided pursuant to this Item 7.01 is “furnished” and shall not be deemed to be “filed” with the Securities and Exchange Commission or incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in any such filing.
