Mr. Tarditi most recently served as Group Financial Planning & Analysis Leader, GE Corporate, of the The General Electric Company ("GE") since July 2021, where he developed financial and operating structures to support the creation of three GE independent companies. He served as Chief Financial Officer of GE Renewable Energies from January 2019 to June 2021, Chief Financial Officer of GE Power Services from December 2017 to December 2018. During Mr. Tarditi's over 26-year tenure at GE, he also served as Vice President, Power Integration Leader, where he led operational integration of business segments, CFO of several divisions and held a variety of financial planning & analysis and other finance roles. Mr. Tarditi holds an MSc in Finance and Business Administration from Universita Bocconi in Milan, Italy.

In connection with Mr. Tarditi's appointment as the Company's President and Chief Financial Officer, the Company provided Mr. Tarditi with an offer letter (the "Offer Letter"), pursuant to which Mr. Tarditi will receive an annual base salary of $800,000 and an annual cash bonus with a value of 100% of his base salary based on achievement of certain fiscal year goals and objectives, which will be prorated for the 2024 fiscal year based on his start date. Mr. Tarditi's annual equity award will be targeted at $2,000,000 beginning with the fiscal 2025 award, which award will be in the form of time-based restricted stock units ("RSUs") and performance-based restricted stock units ("PSUs"), in the same proportion and on the same or similar terms as the long-term incentive awards granted to similarly situated executives of the Company and further subject to the terms and conditions of the respective award agreements evidencing the grant. In addition, Mr. Tarditi will receive prorated new hire equity award in an amount of approximately $1,371,585, based on proration from the last annual equity award date, consisting of 40% RSUs and 60% PSUs, and having the same terms and conditions as the fiscal 2024 awards granted to the Company's other executive officers. He will receive an additional $500,000 sign-on equity award in the form of RSUs that will vest ratably over three years on the anniversary of the grant date. Mr. Tarditi will receive a $250,000 cash sign-on bonus, payable ninety (90) days after his start date. Mr. Tarditi may participate in the Company's health and wellness and retirement benefit plans and programs in accordance with the terms of such plans.

In addition, the Company intends to enter into a Severance Agreement, Change in Control Agreement, and Indemnification Agreement with Mr. Tarditi in connection with his appointment as President and Chief Financial Officer, each of which is substantially consistent with the agreements entered into with the Company's other similarly situated executive officers.

The foregoing description of the terms and conditions of the Offer Letter is qualified in its entirety by reference to the agreement, a copy of which is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1. A summary of the material terms of the form of Severance Agreement is included in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on September 27, 2022, and a copy of the form of Severance Agreement is filed with the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended July 30, 2022 filed on September 27, 2022, each of which is incorporated herein by reference. Because his separation results in a qualifying termination, Mr. Howard will receive severance benefits to which he is entitled pursuant to the terms of the Amended and Restated Severance Agreement by and between the Company and Mr. Howard, effective as of October 23, 2022 ("Howard Severance Agreement"). The Howard Severance Agreement contains certain restrictive covenants that will remain in place for the period of time contemplated by the Howard Severance Agreement as well as a release of claims and waiver against the Company.
