On December 11, 2023, the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Jones Lang LaSalle Incorporated (the "Company"), approved and adopted the Fourth Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company (the "Fourth Amended and Restated Bylaws"), which became effective as of such date. The Fourth Amended and Restated Bylaws supersede and replace in their entirety the Third Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company in effect immediately prior to adoption of the Fourth Amended and Restated Bylaws.

The Fourth Amended and Restated Bylaws, among other things:

- supplement the procedural mechanics and disclosure requirements relating to shareholder nominations of director candidates and proposals regarding other business in connection with meetings of shareholders (other than proposals to be included in the Company's proxy statement pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act")), including without limitation, by:
    - requiring any shareholder submitting a nomination notice to make a representation as to whether such shareholder intends to solicit proxies in support of director nominees other than the Company's nominees in accordance with Rule 14a-19 under the Exchange Act and, on request of the Company, to provide reasonable evidence that certain requirements of such rule have been satisfied; and
    - requiring additional background and disclosures regarding proposing shareholders, proposed nominees and business, and other persons related to a shareholder's solicitation of proxies;
- update the shareholder meeting procedures, including relating to the opening and closing of polls, the authority of the Board and the meeting chair to prescribe rules and regulations governing the conduct of the meeting, and the authority of the meeting chair to adjourn a meeting;
- revise certain procedures and requirements relating to the holding of special meetings of the Company's shareholders, including requirements for shareholders to request a special meeting of shareholders;
- require that a shareholder directly or indirectly soliciting proxies from other shareholders use a proxy card other than white; and
- incorporate certain other administrative, technical, clarifying, and conforming changes, including with respect to the use of gender neutral terms.
