Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 16, 2023, Polaris Inc. (the "Company") and U.S. Bank Trust Company, National Association, as trustee (the "Trustee"), entered into a First Supplemental Indenture, dated as of November 16, 2023 (the "First Supplemental Indenture") to the Indenture, dated as of November 16, 2023 (the "Base Indenture"), relating to the Company's $500 million aggregate principal amount of its 6.950% Senior Notes due 2029 (the "Notes"). The Notes were sold in a public offering pursuant to the Company's Registration Statement on Form S-3 (File No. 333-275360), filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and Prospectus Supplement dated November 9, 2023, which resulted in aggregate net proceeds to the Company of approximately $492 million, after deducting the underwriting discount but before deducting expenses and fees. The First Supplemental Indenture includes the form of the Notes. The Notes will bear interest at a rate of 6.950% per year. Interest on the Notes will be payable semi-annually in arrears on March 15 and September 15 of each year, and the first interest payment date will be March 15, 2024. The Notes will mature on March 15, 2029.

The Company may redeem the Notes, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time prior to maturity. If the Company elects to redeem the Notes at any time prior to February 15, 2029 (the date that is one month prior to the maturity of the Notes), it will pay a "make-whole" redemption price set forth in the First Supplemental Indenture. On or after February 15, 2029, the Company may, at its option, redeem the Notes, in whole or in part at any time and from time to time, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof. In addition to the redemption price, the Company will pay accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the redemption date.

If the Company experiences a change of control triggering event with respect the Notes, as defined in the First Supplemental Indenture, each holder of Notes may require the Company to repurchase some or all of its Notes at a price equal to 101% of their principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, the repurchase date.

Pursuant to the terms of the Notes, the Company and its restricted subsidiaries will be subject to, among other covenants, restrictions on the incurrence of debt secured by liens on Principal Property (as defined in the Base Indenture) or any shares of Capital Stock (as defined in the Base Indenture) of any restricted subsidiary, entering into sale and leaseback transactions in respect of Principal Property and mergers or consolidations with another entity or sales, transfers or leases of the Company's properties and assets substantially as an entirety to another person.

The Base Indenture also defines certain customary events of default, including, but not limited to, a default in payment of any interest installment due on the Notes and continuance of such default for a period of 30 days, a default in payment of principal or premium, if any, on the Notes and a default by the Company under any indebtedness having an aggregate principal amount equal to $200.0 million.

The Base Indenture is attached as Exhibit 4.1. The First Supplemental Indenture is attached as Exhibit 4.2. The foregoing description of the Base Indenture and the First Supplemental Indenture is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Base Indenture and the First Supplemental Indenture, which are each incorporated herein by reference.

The Company intends to use the net proceeds from the sale of the Notes to repay certain indebtedness outstanding under the Company's credit agreement and for general corporate purposes.
