On September 26, 2023, Quanta Services, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), increased the size of its existing unsecured commercial paper program, established on August 23, 2022 (the "CP Program"), to permit the issuance of short-term, unsecured commercial paper notes (the "Notes") up to a maximum aggregate face amount of $1.5 billion outstanding at any time, effective October 6, 2023. Prior to the increase, the CP Program permitted the Company to issue Notes in a maximum aggregate face amount of $1.0 billion outstanding at any time. The Company intends to continue to use the net proceeds of the Notes for general corporate purposes and available commitments for revolving loans under the Company's senior credit facility to provide credit support for all Notes issued under the CP Program.

The Notes are issued pursuant to the terms and conditions of the commercial paper dealer agreements (each, a "Dealer Agreement") entered between the Company and each commercial paper dealer acting as a dealer under the CP Program (each, a "Dealer"). The Company may engage additional commercial paper dealers from time to time to act as Dealers under the CP Program. A national bank acts as issuing and paying agent under the CP Program. Except for the increase in the size of the CP Program described above, the other terms and conditions of the CP Program remain as previously described in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 24, 2022.

The Notes are issued pursuant to an exemption from registration contained in Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or state securities laws and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. The information contained in this Current Report on Form 8-K is neither an offer to sell nor a solicitation of an offer to buy any securities.

From time to time, one or more of the Dealers and certain of their respective affiliates have provided, and may in the future provide, commercial banking, investment banking and other financial advisory services to the Company and its affiliates for which they have received or will receive customary fees and expense reimbursements.
