Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Information and Non-GAAP Measures

This current report on Form 8-K contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The Company intends forward-looking terminology such as "believes," "expects," "may," "will," "should," "intends," "anticipates," "plans," or similar expressions to identify forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements include the information under "2023 Financial and Capital Allocation Outlook." Such statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties, which could cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from those anticipated by the forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, risks described more fully in Item 1A in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K, which is expressly incorporated herein by reference, and other factors as may periodically be described in the Company's filings with the SEC. Forward-looking statements relate to the date initially made, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update them.

In the attached presentation materials, the Company provides information regarding free cash flow, which is not a recognized term under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and does not purport to be an alternative to net income as a measure of operating performance. A reconciliation of free cash flow is provided in the presentation materials attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2. The Company believes that the use of this non-GAAP financial measure provides investors with enhanced visibility into its results with respect to the impact of certain costs. Because not all companies use identical calculations, this presentation may not be comparable to other similarly titled measures of other companies.
