Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On December 13, 2023, the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Expedia Group, Inc. (the "Company") approved and adopted amendments to the Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws (as amended, the "Bylaws"), which became effective that same date. Among other things, the amendments:

- update the procedural mechanics and disclosure requirements in connection with stockholder nominations of directors and other proposals made in connection with annual meetings of stockholders by, among other things:
  - requiring additional background information and disclosures regarding proposing stockholders and proposed nominees;
  - requiring any stockholder submitting a nomination notice to make a representation as to whether such stockholder intends to solicit proxies in support of director nominees other than the Company's nominees in accordance with Rule 14a-19 and to provide reasonable evidence that certain requirements of such rule have been satisfied;
  - requiring that any stockholder proposing any nominees or business provide any additional information as may reasonably be requested by the Company;
  - requiring that a stockholder seeking to nominate director(s) at a meeting deliver to the Company notice that it has met all applicable requirements of Rule 14a-19 no later than five business days prior to the applicable meeting;
  - requiring that the information regarding the stockholder submitting a nomination and their nominees be true as of the record date and as of ten business days prior to the meeting date; and
  - requiring any stockholder directly or indirectly soliciting proxies from other stockholders to use a proxy card other than white, with the white proxy card being reserved for exclusive use by the Board;
- require stockholders to provide notice of any proposed business or nominations no earlier than 120 days and no later than 90 days prior to the annual meeting; and
- make other updates, including conforming changes.

The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Bylaws, a copy of which is included as Exhibit 3.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
